

FINDS HIS WIFE'S BODY IN CELLAR WITH BLUE RIDGE ABOUT THROAT

Autopsy Will Investigate Death of Mrs. Rom, Suspecting Foul Play.

The dead body of Mrs. Hermione Rom, wife of Martin Rom, a barber at Newark, N. J., was found in the cellar of their home at No. 500 Washington street at 3 o'clock this morning. Shortly after that hour the husband rushed breathlessly in to the First Precinct police station of Newark, and told Lieut. Fry that he had just discovered the body.

Rom told the police that he had last seen his wife when they lunched together at noon yesterday. She told him that she was going to visit her sister during the afternoon. She told her daughter, Violet, nine years old, by a former marriage, to meet her at her aunt's after school. The child obeyed, but not finding her mother, and upon being told that she had not yet made the promised visit, went to her home. Her mother was not there, so she returned to the aunt's to await her coming. Rom returned to his home at 7 o'clock, finding neither wife nor child, hastened to the home of his wife's sister, Mrs. Rom had not reached her sister's house, and Rom with the child went back to the Washington street home. None of the neighbors had seen her. Finally, about 3 o'clock, the barber thought of the cellar. There he found, fully dressed, the dead body of his wife.

Lieut. Detective Tuttle and County Physician McKenna were summoned as quickly as possible, and went with Rom to the house. The only mark of violence found is what appears to be a blue ridge about the throat. This might be the result of some pressure on the throat, the doctor said. The body was removed to the morgue, where an autopsy will be made to determine the cause of death. Meanwhile the police are investigating, and the husband is working with them to determine whether there was foul play. Mrs. Rom was a widow when she married the barber. She was thirty-three years old, the same age as her husband.

CALLS SON A DOPE FIEND.

Boy Sent to New York Reformatory to Cure Habit.

Henry Luff of No. 266 St. Ann's avenue brought his son William before Magistrate Breen in the Morrisania

Court this morning and accused the young man of being a cocaine fiend. The youth, who is twenty, admitted the accusation and said he had acquired the habit a year and a half ago. He added that he had tried to break himself but it was too strong for him and he had stolen to get funds for the stuff. He was sent to the New York Reformatory.

Beautiful Ostrich Feather
Trimmed Millinery

Two of the Charming Models as Illustrated

This is undoubtedly the best and biggest Millinery value offered by this or any other store this season. They are charming dress hats brought down to an almost un-conceivable low price.

The shapes are made of an elegant quality of silk velvet with either soft, fluffy crowns or stiff crown effects with a sailor or roll brim. They are most beautifully trimmed with a wide, fluffy, 30-inch ostrich feather band finished with a high standing, wide fluffy plume. The color assortment includes stunning black and white combination, solid white, royal blue, peacock, or emerald green. The velvet shapes come in solid black only.

These beautiful millinery creations can be admirably worn with either dress or tailored costumes.
